

It's all you need for a knock-out stocking

● Here are a few of our favourite gifts to give to the person who thought they had everything

PARTY MIX Perfect for every cocktail connoisseur, a DIY cocktail. Buy a sachet of 100 per cent natural fruit puree Funkin mixer for 99p, add a mini bottle of booze, and Bob is your father's brother. Flavours include margarita, pina colada and strawberry daiquiri. Available online from www.funkin.com or from all good supermarkets.

LIPPY CHIC Crème de la Mer Lip Balm is repackaged this winter with an eye catching silver-effect lid. If that's not enough reason to rush out and clear the shelves of the stuff, then consider this: Without it, your gob will look like you've been kissing a cheese grater. £36 for a 9g pot, www.cremedelamer.co.uk

TOE THE LINE Knitted, durable and made in Britain - these Merino socks from Finisterre are just the thing for keeping your tootsies toasty. Super soft, warm, durable and naturally antibacterial, the classic Merino plain sock costs £10 per pair. See www.finisterre.com for stockists

DE LA SOLE Rollasole, makers of foldy-uppy shoes, have gone all French and have brought out the "Parisian Chic" roll-up pump for your feet. So now you can wear your wellies while you battle through snowdrifts to get to the office party, then whip these natty numbers on at the door. £9.95 in sizes small (3/4), medium (5/6) and large (7/8), www.rollasole.com