LIQUID NEWS

NEW from cocktail mixer company Funkin are two new flavours – margarita and strawberry Daiquiri.

Created by bartenders, Funkin is used by top mixologists as well as by lovers of cocktail in their very own homes.

All Funkin mixers contain 100 per cent natural fruit. Each individual mixer is a perfectly balanced recipe which provides a consistent flavour and texture.

Andrew King, of Funkin, said: “Our recipes are specially created to ensure that people can make exceptional, mouth-watering cocktails at home in seconds – no mess and no stress. All they need to do is fill a glass with ice, pour in a Funkin mixer, add a measure of spirit stir and serve – it’s as easy as making a gin and tonic.”

Funkin mixers allow people to make fantastic tasting cocktails in seconds, simply by following the four basic steps:

Get a glass full of ice. Add the spirit of your choice. Add the contents of the Funkin mixer and then either stir in the glass or shake in a shaker to MIXER: Make a Funkin cocktail.
